

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, MARCH 23, 1901.

No. 12

LOCAL BREVITIES.

J. M. Dennis, of Rhoades, was in town Tuesday on business.

W. G. Dickinson returned Thursday from his cattle ranch on the Verde.

The Racket Store is headquarters for the finest cigars, either wholesale or retail.

J. W. Francis returned yesterday from a trip to the mines on the Navajo reservation.

George C. Grover has accepted the position of night watchman in Babbitt Brothers' store.

Some people are hard to please. They object to there being two windy days in succession.

George B. Upton, of Wickenburg, Arizona, and C. E. Lamb, of Clinton, Iowa, are in town today.

The dog poisoner has stopped the career of numerous of valuable and valueless canines this week.

James P. McCormick, an employe of the Arizona Lumber and Timber company, died Sunday after a brief illness.

G. R. Bauerback, one of the leading citizens of Winslow, spent a few hours here Thursday, while on his way to Williams.

Navajo blankets, curios and photographs of Grand Canyon and other points of interest can be had at the Racket Store.

Thomas McGeorge, New Mexico and Arizona representative of Bradstreets, with headquarters at Albuquerque, was here last week.

Special display of spring patterns and ready to wear hats March 28 and 29. The public are cordially invited.

MISS WYNNE.

W. K. Ross returned Thursday, from Lyon, Greenwood and Elk counties, Kansas, where he has been on a three-months' tour in the interest of his fine stock.

Matt Black came up from Cottonwood Sunday. He reports the roads on the mountain as in a very muddy condition and there is still plenty of snow on the ground.

Louis Herman, of Spokane, Washington, who has been spending the past month here visiting his brother, Julius Herman, left Thursday on a visit to his parents in Germany.

The reading room committee of the Methodist church has had electric lights placed in the building to take the place of the oil lamps, which is a great improvement both in convenience and light.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Walker returned Monday from a trip to California. He captured Ed. Smith, one of the jail breakers at Bakersfield, Cal., and returned him to his old cell in the county jail.

Our townsman, Mr. John E. Palmer, while in Chicago last week secured a very unique and novel souvenir in the form of a section of the submarine cable which was cut by Admiral Dewey in Manila Bay, during the late unpleasantness with Spain. It is securely mounted in brass, and is quite interesting and highly appreciated by its possessor.

The latest style L'Aiglon belts at the New York Store.

J. H. Fanton and wife, of Danbury, Conn., were visitors here this week.

Try the Club House Flour of P. R. Weatherford & Co. There is none better.

The April term of the District court for Coconino county will convene on Monday, April 8.

If in need of school supplies of any kind you can find them at the Racket Store at the lowest prices.

W. H. Anderson returned Thursday afternoon from Butte Montana, where he has been spending the winter.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

The Sunday school of the Methodist church is preparing an excellent program of music and recitations for Easter.

M. J. Kennedy spent several days here this week. He is preparing to move his family back to Flagstaff from Williams.

The Racket Store has received a lot of fine rocking chairs which are being offered at reasonable prices. Call and see them.

W. R. Edwards and family expect to leave for California some time in May. They will make their future home in that state.

There are thousands of sheep in Arizona, yet the butchers of Flagstaff are receiving their supply of mutton from Denver, Colorado.

John H. Page, who has been spending the past three months here and at Williams, returned to his home in Wellesley, Mass., on Tuesday. He expects to return here in June.

Miss Helen Riordan delightfully entertained a party of friends with a dinner at the Adams hotel Monday evening. There were eleven couples present and the evening was most enjoyably spent.—Phoenix Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Long gave an informal farewell reception at their residence Monday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, to Mrs. H. D. Ross, who left on Tuesday morning's train for the east to continue her study of music.—Journal-Miner.

Cecil G. Fennell, of the Val Verde Copper company, is at present in California. He expects to be in Prescott either the latter part of this week or the first of next to make arrangements for the starting up of the Val Verde smelter on the Agua Fria.—Journal-Miner.

Obie Frye, returned from the Philippines last week. He was a member of the Eleventh cavalry and served two years. He also served in the Spanish-American war. He is not favorably impressed with the climate of the Philippines, there being too much rainfall and hot weather.

Rev. George Logie, of the Presbyterian church, expects to leave for Phoenix in a few days to attend the Presbytery which meets in that city, and as he is the retiring moderator will deliver the opening sermon. He will also attend the Territorial Sunday school convention which meets in Prescott the week following the meeting of the Presbytery.

T. E. Pulliam is on the sick list this week.

T. E. Pollock spent several days this week in Phoenix.

L. C. O'Donnell, D. S., has returned from a professional visit to Winslow.

The Racket Store buys and sells second-hand goods of every description.

Spring is now here or rather the sun has passed the point that indicates that season.

Miss Todd announces her opening of spring millinery, Wednesday and following days.

Father Vabre left Thursday on a visit to the towns in the western part of his parish.

Do not forget the election of one school trustee at the school house on next Saturday.

Wm. Freidlien has a new advertisement in this issue which will instruct those in need of plumbing.

P. R. Weatherford & Co. are exclusive agents for the celebrated Club House flour, the king of flour.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

Mrs. H. W. Miller and infant daughter, of Pueblo, Colorado, arrived Thursday, to visit her sister, Miss Retta Beasley.

C. A. Allison, a mining man from Colorado Springs, Colo., and F. H. Myers, returned yesterday from a trip to the mines near Tuba City.

I. W. Gardner, the well-known piano dealer, of Los Angeles, was here on business this week, and was a caller at the SUN office during his stay.

George Babbitt and A. F. Roach returned Thursday from a trip to a point north of Winslow, where Babbitt Brothers will put in a new trading post.

J. E. Morris and wife of Arthur, Ill., were visitors here during the week. Mr. Morris is a prominent business man and banker of his state, and is on his way to Southern California.

George K. Woods and wife left Tuesday for the Grand Canyon. Mr. Woods will have the management of the J. W. Thurber stage line from the end of the railroad track to the hotel at the canyon.

I. W. Norton, an employe of the Arizona Lumber and Timber company, yesterday afternoon, while handling a hand-cart load of lumber accidentally upset the cart and was caught under the falling lumber, breaking his leg below the knee.

J. H. Marshall, superintendent of waterworks, has a force of men at work putting in a two-inch water main from a connection on Leroux street, east on Phoenix avenue to San Francisco street and south on that street to the residence of John Hance. The extension will add about a dozen residences to the water rental roll.

Wanted—An energetic and reliable man or woman who will canvass Flagstaff and neighborhood for the sale of the greatest and most interesting book ever issued on Northern Arizona, "In and Around the Grand Canyon," by George Wharton James, whose exhaustive studies extending over many years are well-known. For full particulars apply at this office.

The latest ready-to-wear hats at Miss Todd's.

Timmerhoff, the druggist, has a new advertisement in this issue.

The Racket Store will store your household goods at reasonable rates.

John Hennessey is up from Angel. He reports plenty of water in that section.

Born—In Milton, on Tuesday, March 19, 1901, to the wife of F. J. Jack, a daughter.

Born—In Milton, on March 20, 1901, to the wife of A. M. Spielman, a daughter.

Twenty-five carloads of wool have been shipped from Phoenix during the past thirty days.

Spring opening of pattern hats and all the latest novelties in spring millinery at Miss Todd's.

Flagstaff Lodge No. 499 B. P. O. will hold their annual election of officers on next Tuesday night.

The celebrated Club House flour, kept by P. R. Weatherford & Co. will please the best bread lovers.

Quite a number of the sons of the Emerald isle were seen last Sunday "wearing of the green" in honor of their patron saint.

L. W. Quinlan left Thursday for Prescott, to see John M. Dohoney, who is seriously ill at the Sisters' hospital, at that place. The friends of Mr. Dohoney here trust that he may recover his health.

J. F. Wilson, delegate to congress from Arizona, accompanied by his wife, returned from Washington Monday. Now that his term as delegate has expired he will resume the practice of law in Prescott.

There will be a Territorial Sunday school convention held in Prescott on April 8 to 10. This promises to be the most interesting meeting ever held in Arizona, as there will be five international workers, each of whom are specialists.

Rev. J. H. Henry, pastor of the Methodist church, who exchanged pulpits with the minister of the same denomination at Williams last Sabbath, returned home on Monday and reports having a very enjoyable time in our neighboring town.

George Morgan had the misfortune on Monday night to have his index finger and thumb of his right hand badly burned while handling a lamp which was about to explode. George reports that the wound is getting along as well as could be expected.

Rev. W. C. Geyer, of Williams, who occupied the pulpit at the Methodist church last Sunday, returned to his home Wednesday, leaving a very favorable impression upon the attendants of that house of worship. Rev. Geyer illustrates his discourses in a very pleasing manner.

Acting under orders from the department, Superintendent I. B. Hanna delegated Supervisors Breen, of Arizona, and McClure, of New Mexico, to make a tour of investigation in the western division of the Gila forest reserve in New Mexico, in compliance with the memorial passed by the thirty-fourth general assembly of New Mexico, recommending the elimination of this division of the Gila reserve. They left Santa Fe for the Gila Wednesday afternoon.